Ultimate off-piste ski safari - three countries, ten ski resorts

- Ski in three countries
- Ski through ten resorts
- Six days guiding
- Off-piste skiing

Ski safari- course summary

Starting in France, travelling through Italy and back to France, with a cheeky day in Switzerland, we aim to ski ten different ski resorts in three different countries over six days.

Ski safari – is it for me?

This week is an exciting and challenging journey through many different resorts, skiing on and off-piste. Although the journey uses ski lifts and works its way through ski areas, you will be skiing off-piste as much as possible, with some off-piste runs being long and quite remote from the ski areas. The guide will react to the conditions on the day and choose runs appropriate to the group.

You should be able to ski any pisted run with complete confidence. You should have some experience of skiing off-piste and be able to link turns together in variable snow conditions, be adventurous and prepared to give it a go!

Course requirements: your fitness

A good level of ski fitness is required, with the ability to keep going for a full day's skiing on and off-piste. You will be carrying a day rucksack containing a shovel, probe, drink, snacks and spare warm clothing.
